

David Kraft is ESPN's Creative Director of Branded Content, CreativeWorks. In his position, he develops and creates branded content features for clients interested in storytelling being a part of their TV and/or digital campaigns. Prior to his current experience, David was an award-winning Producer at ESPN Classic, ESPN Original Entertainment and Studio Production. He's also worked as a Producer and Director in Hong Kong & Singapore. David graduated from the University of Michigan.